ASSIGNMENTS

Some assignments must be prepared before the first class. All assignments must be submitted no later than the last class of the term of that class.

MISSION

The United Methodist Church requires its part-time local pastors to complete a course of study, allowing ten years for the regular five year program. They complete at least one-half year (two classes) in order to be eligible for reappointment (Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 2008 Par. 318.2 See also 316 -320.)

Part-time pastors whose non-clergy vocation makes it difficult if not impossible to attend a residential school may attend the Indiana Extension School.

ADMISSION

Applicants must complete the Candidacy and License to Preach requirements before beginning the Course of Study. Applications require the signature of the student's District Superintendent and the Local Pastor Registrar of his/her annual conference.

REGISTRATION

Application for admission to the Course of Study School is made on a registration form that is obtained from one of the conference directors or online at www.inumc.org

TUITION AND OTHER COSTS

Tuition for the 2009-10 year is $ 450 for pastors in the Indiana Conference. Pastors enrolling from non-Indiana conferences pay $ 550 for the year.

Scholarships from the Indiana annual conference and districts cover part of tuition. Students pay for textbooks and any other personal expenses.

Students from other conferences should check with their District Superintendent, or District Committee for financial aid. Such students should register through the Rev. J. Wilbur Yates, co- director.

Checks should be made out to:
INDIANA AREA UMC
[On the memo line put COS]

The registration fee of $ 50 [not refundable after the deadline] must accompany the application by the deadline date, July 31, for the fall term. The Spring term deadline is December 15. Remaining tuition is due no later than the first day of class in the fall term.

FACULTY

The men and women who teach in the Course of Study have academic credentials as well as practical experience in the areas that they teach. They come primarily from the Indiana annual conference. Most hold clergy credentials and have served as pastors of local churches.

GRADING

Letter Grades are assigned in the traditional A, B, C, D or F format.
